Out on a Fly.

The Constitutional Convention took a trip over the Midland and Louisville Southern Roads Thursday afternoon to the High Bridge at Tyrone, at the invitation of Col. Bennett H. Young.

Snake Killed.

The warm sunshine brought out the snakes again yesterday and a black one about three feet long was killed while basking in the sun upon the sidewalk in front of the residence of Mr. Hiram Berry, on Main street, South Frankfort.

A Wild Run.

The horse attached to the delivery wagon of Messrs Sower & Ahler was left standing in the street in front of their store, yesterday morning, when he took fright and ran away. He ran out Main to Wilkerson, and thence straight down Wilkerson street and the Lewis Ferry Pike until the Kentucky River Mills was reached, where he swerved to the left, went over a bluff sixty feet high and fell to the river bank below. The wagon was mashed to pieces, but strange to say the horse was not killed and escaped with only a few cuts, which will not damage him very materially.

In addition to the above, several gentlemen are running for councilmen upon their own hook. As the lines are now drawn, we suppose the fight at the polls will be a determined one, and boodle will flow freely. The bummers and floaters are exceedingly happy in consequence.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

In accordance with established custom, it is recommended that Thursday, Nov. 26, be set apart by the citizens of the Commonwealth as a day of Thanksgiving, to be observed in such manner as each may deem most appropriate to manifest gratitude for the many blessings conferred by the beneficence of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe.

[L.S.] In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort the 13th day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and in the ninety-ninth year of the Commonwealth. S. B. BUCKNER,

By the Governor:

GEO. M. ADAMS, Secretary of State.

By EWD. O. LEIGH, Assistant Secretary.

Tobacco Growers.

The convention of tobacco growers of the State, which met in Lexington on Wednesday, was largely attended. A preamble reciting their grievances and resolutions favoring the establishment of a number of warehouses at different points for the sale of their product were adopted. The sales are to be controlled by officers of the Association. A committee was appointed to draw up articles of incorporation for the warehouse company and solicitors for subscriptions of stock were appointed in each county. Mr. Benjamin Briggstaff, of the Forks of Elkhorn, was appointed as solicitor for this county. The convention adjourned Thursday to reassemble in Louisville on 11th of December.

Old Timers.

At the invitation of the Constitutional Convention, Gov. David Meriwether, of Jefferson county, and Hon. W. R. Thompson, of Bullitt county, members of the Convention of 1849, were the guests of that body on Thursday. Gov. Meriwether is 90 years of age and Mr. Thompson is 86. There are some five or six other survivors of the last Convention, but they were unable to attend. Mr. Herndon, of Mason county, who was the correspondent here of the Louisville Courier during the sitting of the Convention of 1849, has also been in the city this week.

Col. Landram Dead.

Col. John J. Landram, U. S. Internal Revenue Collector for the Sixth District, died at Covington on Thursday, after an illness of several weeks. During the late war he was Lieutenant Colonel of the 18th Kentucky Infantry, was dangerously wounded at the battle of Richmond, resigned his commission and was elected State Senator from the district of which Gallatin county forms a part, serving four years. He was appointed to the position he held at his death by President Harrison about 18 months since.

Leg Crushed.

Mr. Jas. Thompson, who resides near Duckers, in Woodford county, was so unfortunate as to have his buggy upset, while out riding one day the first of the week; he was thrown out, his right leg was caught between the hub of one of the wheels and the ground and the bone below the knee so badly crushed that it is feared amputation will be necessary.

I have been suffering for nearly two years.
